IE Discovery Launches New Website

Major redesign includes new look, functionality and content

Austin, Texas (April 4, 2007) - A substantially redesigned web site was launched today by IE Discovery, Inc., a leading provider of comprehensive Discovery Management solutions to the legal community. With a fresh appearance and improved functionality, the website has added new content and resources while providing the latest information on Discovery Management and Litigation Support. The new website can be viewed at www.iediscovery.com.

"Our new website is a reflection of our commitment to constant innovation," said Chris May, CEO of IE Discovery. "In an industry that continually evolves and changes, we felt it was important to not only update our look, but to provide timely and relevant content to our users."

IE Discovery has added new features and functionality to improve the users experience and make it easier to navigate. "The area that was enhanced the most was our Resources section." said Craig Foster, Marketing Manager. "We're constantly providing fresh, new content. We have case studies, articles and reference tools to help keep our users up-to-date".

Designed by Austin, Texas-based and award-winning web design firm Olive Design, the latest technologies were employed to give users a rich experience, including Flash, Java, and custom database design.
